The parish of Lyme Handley is located at the northern tip of the South West Peak, adjacent to the parishes of Pott Shrigley and Kettleshulme. A large part of the parish is Lyme Park, a National Trust owned Grade 1 listed house, gardens and parkland; and the remaining area is agricultural with scattered farmsteads. The western part of the parish is located outside the National Park.

The parish of Lyme Handley is characterised by the estate lands of Lyme Park and enclosed gritstone uplands located within the South West Peak landscape area (Landscape Strategy Action Plan 2009).
