

Parsley Hay

Journey along former railway lines and the Pennine Bridleway taking in the scenery of the White Peak with refreshments, picnic opportunities and cycle hire.

Access For All Route:

- ① Turn left along the trail in front of the cycle hire centre.
- ② Pass a bridge and bollards and keep right when the trail forks.
- ③ Continue through cuttings and along embankments until reaching the signal box at Hartington Station, and then Ruby Wood.

Alternative:

Start at Hartington Station for a shorter route to Ruby Wood (800m) or for reversing the route to Parsley Hay.

- i The route forms part of the Pennine Bridleway, for cyclists and horse riders, which parallels the Pennine Way for walkers.
- i Arbor Low Dark Sky Discovery Site at Parsley Hay provides seasonal panoramas of the night sky.
- i Hartington Station signal box still has the levers for signalling.

Distance: 4 km to Ruby Wood
Start Point: Parsley Hay Car Park, via the A515 Buxton to Ashbourne Road
OS Grid Ref: SK1468 6371
Post Code: SK17 ODG
Nearest Facilities: Parsley Hay Cycle Hire and Hartington Station

© Crown copyright and database rights 2019 Ordnance Survey 0100022750